HOLLINGER IS FOUND GUILTY; TRY LAST CASE

Paul Levere Hollinger, Littlestown, was found guilty of maintaining a disorderly house at Natural Springs park by permitting indecent dancing, by an Adams county jury this morning.

The jury retired at 10:25 o'clock and returned with its verdict at 11 o'clock.

Originally the indictment against Hollinger contained two counts, one of disturbing the neighbors and the second on the type of dancing. Judge W. C. Sheely in his charge to the jury this morning pointed out that no evidence was given that the neighbors were disturbed, and that as a matter of fact the neighbors to the Natural Springs park, just east of here on the Lincoln highway, had testified they were not disturbed by the music and dancing.

Saunders, Carter On Trial
As a result the verdict was on only the second count of the indictment.

The final case to be brought to trial this term was underway today with the jury hearing testimony on a public indecency charge against Barbara Ann Saunders and Raymond Franklin Carter, both of Gettysburg.

Miss Saunders and Carter are charged with indecency in their dancing at Natural Springs park, November 15, State Policeman Joseph Van Nort testified to the jury.

A group of witnesses including Harriet Carter, Joseph P. Wansel and Joseph Carter testified that not only were Miss Saunders and Raymond Carter not dancing indecently, but that they at no time danced together during that night. Joseph Wansel testified he was dancing with Miss Saunders but said they stopped when the music became too fast for him. He said he watched several other couples "dancing, they called it jitterbugging, I guess, but I'd call it gymnastics," for a brief time and then walked away. Miss Carter said she danced with Raymond Carter, but that they stopped when the music became too fast. She said she and Miss Saunders then watched two other couples dance.

A number of other defendants indicted by the grand jury a week ago will not appear in court this term. Dennis Joseph Eline and Ralph Eugene Calmer, both of York and both charged with gambling, are in White Hill, on sentences from York county. District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter said he had learned, Frank Steve Ginfried, York, charged with gambling, failed to appear and his bail was forfeited.

Wayne Jimmie Price, Gettysburg R. 2, charged with larceny is currently in the county jail, having pleaded guilty to another charge and at the request of the prosecutor the larceny case was continued, Teeter said.

All civil suits have been continued or dropped.

Members of the jury for the Carter-Saunders case were drawn Tuesday afternoon and the remaining members of the January jury were excused at that time. When the Hollinger case ended this morning members of that jury also were excused and paid for their services, leaving the Saunders case the only one remaining for trial during the January term.

Many Witnesses
Hearing the Carter-Saunders case are Lloyd Baker, Ottomanna R. D.; Parvin R. Bower, York Springs; John Fox, East Lincoln avenue; Earl Heiser, McSherrystown; Mrs. Elizabeth Lippy, Seminary avenue; Melvin Miller, Biglerville R. D.; Mrs. Ruth Nary, Biglerville; Albert Noel, Hanover R. 4; Norbert Saml, Hanover R. 4; Harold W. Wentz, 121 Baltimore street; Jay D. Wolf, Gettysburg R. 2, and Mrs. Ruth Zepp, Gettysburg R. 4.

A long array of witnesses appeared on the stand Tuesday afternoon to give testimony for the defense in the Hollinger case. Lawrence Washington, Gettysburg college professor, and Mrs. Fannie Carey, who reside in cottages at Natural Springs park, a short distance from the dance hall, said they had not been disturbed by the music from the dance hall, nor had ever seen anything amiss at the park.

No Marijuana Cigarettes
Hollinger said he had agreed to hold weekly dances at the park at the request of Robert "Skip" Shearer, East Middle street, and several others who had told him there was a need for some place

ENGAGED

MISS DAYHOFF

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Dayhoff, 40 North Stratton street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Romona Katherine, to Sgt. Kenneth W. Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Black, Aspers R. 1.

Miss Dayhoff is a student at the Gettysburg high school. Sergeant Black was graduated from the Biglerville high school with the class of 1949. He was employed for a year at the capitol in Harrisburg after which entered the United States Army Air Force at Fort Dix, N. J. He has been stationed in Landsburg, Germany, for the last year.

No date has been set for the wedding.

BAD CHIMNEY CAUSES $1,500 BLAZE TUESDAY

A two-story and attic frame house at 37 Breckenridge street was damaged extensively by fire Tuesday night which Fire Chief Donald G. Jacobs said was caused by a defective chimney. The house was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John Coldsmith. It is owned by the estate of George N. Flaherty, of which Pearl Flaherty, Washington, D. C., is executrix. Mrs. George P. Eberhart, agent for the property, estimated the loss to the building at $1,500, entirely covered by insurance.

The Gettysburg fire department was called at 7:45 o'clock. When they reached the scene, dense clouds of smoke were pouring from the upper part of the house. Booster lines from the trucks were first brought into play, while pumps were hooked up to fire hydrants at Breckenridge and South Washington streets and on Baltimore street, opposite Breckenridge street.

Smoke, Water Damage
Four inch and a half lines were used to extinguish the fire, which burned through the second floor and the partitions, and ruined two bedrooms and a bathroom on the second floor, including the furniture and furnishings. The entire house suffered extensively from smoke and water damage. A ceiling fell on the second floor.

The cold temperatures caused water from the hose lines to freeze, and firemen were coated with ice.

ORDERED TO PAY $300 TO COUNTY

Bernard Arthur Rich, Raleigh, N. C., was given a suspended sentence by the Adams county court Tuesday afternoon on a charge of drunken driving on condition that he pay $300 for the use of the county and the costs.

Judge W. C. Sheely, in imposing sentence, said only the testimony of Dr. Roy W. Gifford, given at a hearing Tuesday afternoon, shortly before sentence was imposed, persuaded the court to suspend sentence on the North Carolina resident. Usually the court imposes jail sentences for those found guilty of drunken driving.

Rich had been found guilty Monday by a jury of driving while drunk.

Dr. Gifford, a surgeon at the local hospital, told the court he had examined Rich, and in his opinion, incarceration in the local jail would be "very detrimental" to Rich's health. He added that facilities are available here for the deep X-ray therapy treatments being given to Rich, but said that Rich needed the services of the specialist in North Carolina who had begun the treatments. The local doctor said he had been in consultation with Rich's doctor in North Carolina and had examined Rich himself to determine whether it was absolutely necessary that Rich return to North Carolina for treatment and that as a result of his examination he was convinced that it was necessary for the North Carolinian to return to his home to continue the treatment.

BENDER AGAIN NAMED HEAD OF RETAIL GROUP

The Retail Merchants association elected officers, adopted a store closing calendar for the year, and discussed recommendations that stores remain open additional hours for the convenience of shoppers, at a meeting held at the court house Tuesday night.

Charles B. Bender, who headed the organization during its first ten months, was re-elected president. Jacob G. Appier was elected vice president, and Frank D. Hower was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

John D. Lippy, Jr., and Stover Small were elected directors for two years, and James Reaver and Mrs. Glenn Guise directors for one year terms. An amendment to the bylaws was adopted providing for the election henceforth of two directors for two-year terms each year.

Close On Holidays
Under the new calendar of closing, retail stores will be closed all day on the following holidays: New Year's, Memorial Day, Fourth of July, Labor Day, Armistice Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas. They will be closed on Good Friday from noon to 3 p.m.

The retailers designated December 10 as the date they will start remaining open evenings for business for the Christmas shopping season, closing at 6 p.m. on December 24.

N. A. Mellickes, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was among those who recommended that a study be made of additional store hours in the evenings. "The public seems to demand that they have more time for shopping," he said. "Many working people are not able to go to a store during the week. Saturday night at present is the only time they have for shopping."

President Bender and others pointed out that stores in nearby cities were changing their store hours to remain open more than one evening. As a result of the discussion, the following committee was named to study the situation:

Harold H. Reuning, chairman; Radford H. Lippy, C. O. Schweizer, Charles E. Weaver, Ernest Swaby, Mares Sherman, James S. Reaver, Hugh O. Davis, Mrs. Glenn Guise, Mrs. Beatrice Rider, Miss Virginia Myers, Harold W. Wentz, Irving Bierer, Earl Nace Roy Shriver, Paul Littleton, Martin Redding, Malcolm Miller, Clifford Naugle, Lloyd (Continued on Page 2)

Spangler's (County) Bridge No. 100

Nothing in the beautiful and peaceful countryside of Cranberry Valley now indicates that at one time this section of Adams county thrived to the discovery of extensive iron ore beds. This was in 1872. Considerable quantities of ore were taken from the ground, but iron mining was discontinued many years ago. Discovery of the iron ore was made on the Emmanuel Spangler farm, near this old covered bridge, which bears the name, Spangler's bridge. On The Gettysburg Times map, it is County Bridge No. 100.

This section of Tyrone township is one of the most beautiful parts of Adams county. Sweeping vistas of long rolling hills, wooded slopes and valleys bisected by small streams, and patchwork patterns of fields and pastures in one of the best farming areas in the county make a motor trip through the section unusually delightful.

Spangler's bridge spans Bermudian creek in this quiet rural setting. Its span is 89 feet, two inches. Lime-rock Mill is not far from the bridge. The first property in this section was purchased from the Penna. Another old covered structure, Helkes bridge, is almost within a stone's throw of Spangler's bridge.

Best way to reach these bridges from Gettysburg is by way of the Harrisburg road, Route 15 north. Drive through Heidlersburg and turn on the Rock Chapel road, Legislative Route No. 01004. The motorist will pass Rock Chapel, oldest Methodist church in Adams county, on the way to the bridges. The distance to the Rock Chapel and Harrisburg road intersections is about ten and a half miles. It is about a mile and a half from the intersection to the bridges. (Gettysburg Times photo)

NEW BOARD OF SAINT JOSEPH COLLEGE MEETS

At an organizational meeting of the advisory board of Saint Joseph college, Emmitsburg, at the school this afternoon at 4 o'clock it is planned to formulate policies and complete the organization work. Very Rev. Francis J. Dodd, C.M., Ph.D., president of the board of trustees of the college, will preside at the session. Following the meeting dinner will be served.

Complementing the already existing board of trustees, the advisory board will serve to keep the institution in touch with social trends and needs; provide extra-institutional viewpoints and standards and offer-

NORTON REDDING RETURNS HOME

Norton Redding, East Stevens street, has returned from Pearl Harbor, where he was sent as a member of a group of seven to complete installation of new types of weapons on naval vessels.

Redding, an inspector at York Naval Ordnance plant, was the local map in the group. The six others were from the Navy installations in Washington.

"Synopsis" a publication of the York Naval Ordnance plant, in an article on the trip made by the group, said "the least slip in installation or testing would result in disaster for the ship and its entire crew." The group installed and fired the weapon on a naval ship at Pearl Harbor.

Redding left here January 2 by train for California and flew to Pearl Harbor from San Francisco. His companions on the plane included members of the Collegiate All-Stars' football team flying to Honolulu to play the Hawaiian All-Stars.

News Collected At Random

Business hours, including holidays, evening hours, etc., for retail merchants occupied a good portion of the Retail Merchants' meeting here Tuesday evening.

On Monday night Chambersburg's Chamber of Commerce sponsored a dinner-meeting of representative retailers from six Cumberland Valley towns to discuss the same questions, especially the trend toward remaining open more than one evening a week. Here is how the Chambersburg Public Opinion reported the session:

A gathering of representative merchants of six towns of the Cumberland Valley was held last night on invitation of the Chambersburg Chamber of Commerce to sound out opinion and exchange views on the controversial question of store hours.

The dinner meeting, with the local chamber as host, was held at Hotel Washington, and was attended by retail merchants' committees of chambers of commerce from Mechanicsburg, Carlisle, Shippensburg, Waynesboro, Chambersburg and Hagerstown. Each group was represented by four each, with the exception of the local committee, with five representatives present. In the absence of Harold E. Gabler, chamber president, who was ill, Ralph Ranker chairman of the

BOARD MEETS TONIGHT

A special meeting of the board of health will be held tonight at 8:30 o'clock at the office of Dr. Harrison P. Harbach to take action on a recommendation to the borough council for the position of health officer, to replace Eugene S. Sickles, resigned. The meeting will take the place of next week's regular meeting.

Sen. Taft And John L. Lewis Tangle Today During Hearing

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) and John L. Lewis hooked up in a bitter name-calling clash at a Senate committee hearing today. Lewis termed the Taft-Hartley law "a slave act."

"Lewis wound up with this broadside at the top presidential hopeful:

"If you are ever elected president, Mr. Taft, and Joe Stalin should ask you about the Taft-Hartley slave act, I don't know how you'll answer him."

"I can handle Stalin all right," Taft retorted. "And I managed to handle the workers of Ohio." He was obviously referring to his overwhelming reelection as senator in 1950 when his authorship of the labor law was a primary issue.

Earlier, Taft had accused Lewis of injecting a "red herring" into

11 PCT. SLASH IN FUNDS HITS PARK WORK AND STAFF

An 11 percent slash in the appropriation of federal funds for maintenance and management of the Gettysburg National park in 1952 will cut the number of employees and reduce maintenance work to the point where only the "most necessary" needs will get attention.

That statement was made today by Dr. J. Walter Coleman, park superintendent, who said that the regular employees will be reduced from 12 to nine and that the park will have to get along without the 12 temporary workers added last summer. Interpretative work also will be reduced by not employing two ranger-historians used last summer.

Dr. Coleman said the cut in maintenance funds will not alter plans for the repair of the Eternal Light Peace memorial. Funds already have been allocated to cover the contract price of $62,907. Granite and bluestone to be used already have arrived and work will begin as soon as weather permits, Dr. Coleman said.

Won't Fill Vacancies
The "most needed" maintenance tasks to be handled by the reduced staff this year will include maintaining roads, repairing fences, cutting grass on special plots and along the most-traveled avenues—and on the 18 acres in the National cemetery.

The staff reductions are coming about this way: Jack Reynolds, purchasing clerk, has resigned; Ernest G. Strickhouser, park painter, retired last September after 30 years; John S. Williams, park employee for 37 years, will retire February 29—and none will be replaced. An additional laborer has been "separated" from the service and will not be replaced.

The maintenance task the park staff regularly faces includes mowing 220 acres of plots and avenues' borders; keeping up 26 miles of roadway and 90 miles of fence; keeping in repair 2,500 markers, monuments and tablets and maintaining 138 structures of many sorts in the park.

Dr. Coleman said other national parks received similar cuts, including Ft. McHenry, Antietam and Fort Necessity for which Gettysburg is the central office.

Minor Damage When Two Autos Collide

Automobiles operated by Sidney Allen Simmons, Gettysburg R. 2, and George A. Kress, Jr., 102 Newark street, Littlestown, collided Tuesday in the first block of Baltimore street, according to a borough police report.

Police said Simmons was pulling out of a parking space and was struck by the other car. Simmons, police added, had no Pennsylvania operator's license and will be charged with this offense. Damage to the Kress car was estimated at $5 and to the Simmons car at $30.

Commies Agree To Rotation Of 25,000 Allied Troops A Month During An Armistice In Korea

Seoul, Korea, Jan. 30 (AP)—Allied raiders today fought through slush and mud on the western Korean front almost to the top of a Chinese held hill but heavy resistance forced them to withdraw.

In a new air battle one Russian-type jet was sent flaming to earth as American Sabre jets took on MIG-15s.

Warm weather melted snows, turning sections of the 155 mile Korean ground front into a quagmire.

Small Patrol Actions

Allied raiders struck through this muck northwest of Chorwon before dawn, and ran into two hours of sharp fighting. The main body of the raiders fought up the slippery slopes of a Red-held hill through heavy rifle and machine gun fire to within 50 yards of the crest. The U.N. infantrymen broke off the fight at 8:30 a.m. and pulled back to their own lines.

Dozens of small patrol actions erupted all along the front, particularly in Mundung Valley near Heartbreak Ridge in the eastern mountains. Three fights lasting from half an hour to an hour broke out there.

McCormick Heads NATO Naval Force

London, Jan. 30 (AP)—U. S. Admiral Lynde D. McCormick has been named supreme commander of western naval forces in the north Atlantic, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization announced today.

Adm. McCormick presently is commander of the U. S. Atlantic Fleet.

His NATO command will extend up to but will not include the coastal area of the British Isles, under an agreement reached by President Truman and Prime Minister Winston Churchill during Churchill's recent visit to the United States.

McCormick, a Virginian, had long been considered the most logical choice as the new "sea-going Eisenhower." He is a former vice chief of naval operations.

There had been considerable delay in making the appointment because of Britain's desire to see a Briton in the top command. Churchill, on his last visit to Washington, yielded to the appointment of an American. This was a surprise concession.

FRUIT GROWERS TO HEAR HORST

State Secretary of Agriculture Myles Horst will be the principal speaker Saturday at the annual all-day meeting of the Adams County Fruit Growers association at Biglerville.

Secretary Horst will speak at a dinner session to be held at the C. H. Musselman company cafeteria following a morning meeting at the Biglerville community center.

Horst is one of several speakers scheduled for the post-luncheon session. The growers will be guests of the C. H. Musselman company.

Election of officers is also scheduled for the morning meeting. Usually about 30 growers from throughout the county attend.

At the morning meeting John O. Pepper, Dr. Robert Kirby and John U. Reuf, State College Extension specialists, will outline the 1952 spray program for Adams county, for the dinner.

SCOTT HEADS EXCHANGE CLUB

E. Donald Scott, vice president of the Exchange club, was elected president at the election of officers held Tuesday night following the regular dinner meeting of the club at Banker's restaurant. He will succeed David Garfield, Jr.

Robert P. Snyder was elected vice president, John J. Sientz was re-elected secretary, and Carl E. Prosser was re-elected treasurer. Elected to the board of control for one year were Francis L. Groft, Richard Shaffer and Dewey McCauslin. Officers will be installed in March.

At a meeting of the board of control following the club meeting, contributions were voted to the Beta Sigma Phi sorority for the library improvement fund; to the Blue and Gray band, the March of Dimes Polio fund and the Red Cross.

OK TOWNSHIP REQUEST

The Adams county commissioners this morning signed a county aid petition from Germany township for $1,139.61 for placing stone on Route 01140. The county aid petition was the first received by the commissioners for 1952.

Munsan, Korea, Jan. 30 (AP)—Communist negotiators in a double reversal today agreed to the Allies rotating 25,000 troops a month during an armistice and said Chinese would join in administering the demilitarized zone.

The Reds balked, however, at restraints on moving their troops secretly into threatening concentrations during an armistice.

Previously the Communists had agreed to rotating only 5,000 U. N. troops. The Allies are asking for 75,000 a month.

Yesterday the Reds indicated the Chinese would take no part in civil administration of the northern half of a buffer zone during an armistice. Today they reversed it.

Oppose Security Plans

All these actions were taken by staff officers working their way slowly through an 18-page Allied draft of a plan for supervising an armistice.

The Reds objected to two security proposals:

1. That both sides refrain from concentrating troops and guns in a manner to threaten the other side.
2. Both sides to report weekly the exact location of all major ground, naval and air units.

In a neighboring tent at Panmunjom, a U. N. spokesman said, a North Korean general showed a critical and sarcastic interest in the Allied plan for exchanging prisoners.

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckolls said the Communist negotiator was "reasonably objective, but it would be incorrect to say any measurable progress was being made."

Red Concession

A U. N. command communiqué said the staff officers "continued to make progress" on true supervision.

The Red agreement to rotating 25,000 Allied troops, while far short of Allied requests, represented a major change in the Communist position. Originally they opposed any rotation at all.

The Communist proposal today would include troops sent to Japan for "rest and recreation" in addition to those sent home to be replaced.

Allied staff officers said, under these circumstances, 75,000 would be a minimum figure, but if it were limited to replacements 40,000 would be enough. Current Allied rotation figures are believed to run about 25,000 a month, and rest and relaxation leaves about the same.

Oppose Three Questions

In the subcommittee session on prison exchange, North Korean Maj. Lee San Cho analyzed the U.N. command proposal point by point. He expressed agreement in principle on a number of points but showed no change in attitude on key issues blocking agreement.

Lee accused the Allies of holding to an "unreasonable and obstinate attitude" on three crucial questions:

1. Voluntary repatriation. The Reds want all prisoners of war exchanged whether they like it or not.
2. The U. N. proposal that certain prisoners would be released on parole not to fight in the Korean war again. This would remove thousands of South Korean soldiers from the North Korean army.
3. The Allied step-by-step exchange plan. Lee refers to it as a "one-for-one" plan. Allies hold ten times as many prisoners as the Reds. The Communists want an all-for-all exchange.

Accused the Allies of holding to an "unreasonable and obstinate attitude" on three crucial questions:

1. Voluntary repatriation. The Reds want all prisoners of war exchanged whether they like it or not.

2. The U. N. proposal that certain prisoners would be released on parole not to fight in the Korean war again. This would remove thousands of South Korean soldiers from the North Korean army.

ART FESTIVAL IS SET FOR JUNE 28

Plans to hold the second annual art festival June 28 on the lawn at the county court house were outlined at a meeting Tuesday evening of the executive committee of the Associated Arts and Crafts Guild of Adams county held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Good, Gettysburg R. D.

Permission has been granted by the county commissioners for use of the lawn between the court house and Topper building, Mrs. Good reported at the meeting. The group decided to hold the outdoor art show much as it was last year, including a sidewalk cafe and presentation of music. The group hopes to secure a "little German band" to play at the show.

New classes in tinware painting and oils are starting under auspices of the arts and crafts guild. John Byers, Littlestown, will start a new class in tinware this evening at the YWCA, Miss Elsie Peck, Baltimore street, will start a new class in oils and water colors in February. Mr. Byers' class is scheduled Wednesday and Miss Peck's on Mondays. Both will be at the YWCA.

Temporary closing of the art center on Lincoln Square as of February 1 was decided upon, because of the cold weather. The center will be reopened, possibly in another site, this spring, the group decided.

HOLLINGER IS

for young people to dance that was "not a beer hall." He said that about 60 attended the first dance, and that 103 paid admissions for the last dance, held November 15, when a raid was made on the premises.

Shearer, Hollinger said, made arrangements with a Chambersburg orchestra to play at Hollinger's request. The band failed to appear November 8, he said, and a York band was hired for the November 15 dance.

The question of marijuana cigarettes was raised and Hollinger said he had never seen any smoked at the place, would not have permitted it if he had, and had never heard anyone suggest that any were about the place. He admitted a "crap game" had started at the park on the night of November 15, but said he "broke it up" as soon as he was apprised of the situation.

Checked On Dancers

Hollinger said "one of the state policemen" had told him that they were planning to "raid the place some time to check on cigarettes." He said they were doing that all around. I said: "Come on out, I'm glad to have you check. The only disorderliness I've ever had on my place was when two boys started a fight, I broke it up, and they apologized."

Claude Pfeffer, Harrisburg, and a number of others who worked for Hollinger told of making frequent rounds of the grounds and dance floor to see that all was in order during the dances. Mrs. Hollinger told of selling tickets at the dances.

Charles L. Crouse, Jr., York mail carrier, who was leader of the orchestra playing at the park the night of the raid, said he had seen nothing amiss on the dance floor. The dances alluded to by the Commonwealth witnesses, he said, were jitterbug sessions and the dancing similar to the type of dancing he has seen in 11 years of orchestra work in various parts of the country.

Asked about the dancers forming rings about some of the dancers as testified earlier, Crouse said: "That's natural. Not everyone is supple enough to jitterbug—I can't do it myself. When the music is fast usually those couples who can't dance to the music either leave the floor, or stand around and watch. When one or two couples are able to dance better than others, it is customary to form circles such as were seen to watch the good dancers. You could call the dances exhibitionistic jitterbugging. Only a few people are supple enough to dance jitterbug well."

Among character witnesses appearing for Hollinger were C. W. Epley, Gettysburg; and L. D. Snyder and Charles E. Ritter of Littlestown.

Mrs. Mary James Johnson, 85, widow of James A. Johnson, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dora Green, 526 Cooper place, York Tuesday at 4:30 p.m.

She was a member of Bethel A.M.E. church. Survivors include three sons, Charles Johnson, York; William and Herbert Johnson, of Coatesville; seven daughters, Mrs. Beattie Willis, Coatesville; Mrs. Edna Williams, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Estella Martin, Chicago; Mrs. Elsie Atwater, Mrs. Doris Green and Mrs. Marcelle Wilson, all of York, and Mrs. Blanche Potter, Gettysburg; 44 grandchildren, 56 great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, and one sister, Mrs. Amanda Hughes, Virginia.

Joy Chronister Is Cherry Pie Winner

Miss Joy Chronister, 18, a senior at York Springs high school, won the school's annual cherry pie baking contest Tuesday afternoon, after trying unsuccessfully for this honor on two previous occasions. She will represent the school in the county contest at Gettysburg high school next Monday afternoon.

Miss Chronister is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chronister, Gardner's R. 1. During her nearly four years in high school, she has been active in a large number of school activities, is an honor student and a member of the staff of the school paper.

She was one of four who competed Tuesday afternoon. The runner-up was Miss Charlene Brough, 17, also a senior, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Brough, York Springs R. 1.

The judges were Richard C. Lighter, Gettysburg, supervisor of vocational agriculture in the county schools; Mrs. Richard Myers, York Springs, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cassel, also of York Springs. Mr. Cassel is principal of the school. The home economics teacher, under whose supervision the contest was conducted, is Mrs. Gladys Clemens.

Town Commended For Safety Record

Gettysburg was commended Monday for its safety work among children, no fatal accidents in the borough during the past year and the fact that not a single child was injured.

George Morgan, a representative of the American Safety League, praised the borough safety record on his seventh annual visit here. The league supplies calendars and safety material for use in stores and schools, free of charge, each year. He visited Burgess William G. Weaver and commended the police department for its traffic work at the high school and Meade school, the schoolboy patrol at Lincoln school and the St. Francis Xavier school patrol at High and Baltimore streets.

Epley Featured In Newspaper Column

The following item was published in Frank Brookhouser's column, "It's Happening Here," in Tuesday's Philadelphia Inquirer:

"No bite is as fatal as that of the golf bug. Consider the case of victim Clarence (Reds) Epley, of Gettysburg.

"For more than 50 years he lived a perfectly normal life. He built up his automobile business, ate his meals regularly, and slept peacefully at night.

"Then, three years ago, zealous residents of the town built a country club and golf course. Epley joined, took up golf for the first time.

"Today he has four expensive golf bags, four complete sets of golf clubs, nearly 1,000 golf balls, 10 different golf outfits, with caps to match, and six special pairs of golf shoes. (Despite this handicap, he shoots in the low 80s.)

"Well, you would think all of that regalia would be enough. But not for Epley. He has introduced a new wrinkle—a driving machine in the office.

"And they tell us that passing pedestrians are startled at times by the strange sight of Epley rising excitedly from his desk, taking a few lusty drives as though on the green, and then returning to work.

"They remember him when he was normal."

Miss M. B. Hoffman Expires On Tuesday

Miss Mabert Bell Hoffman, 53, died Tuesday at 11:20 a.m. at the home of her sister, Mrs. Roy Bollinger, 107 Peters street, New Oxford, where she resided since October due to ill health.

Miss Hoffman was a daughter of the late Philip Commodore and Ida Mae (Hoover) Hoffman. She was a member of St. Paul's Evangelical Reformed church and Sunday school, New Oxford, and served as a Sunday school teacher without missing a Sunday for 25 years. Miss Hoffman was employed by the Livingston Shoe company, New Oxford.

In addition to her sister she is survived by two nephews. Funeral services Saturday at 2 p.m. at St. Paul's church conducted by the Rev. Archie Rohrbaugh. Interment in the New Oxford cemetery. Friends may call at the W. A. Feiser funeral home, Hanover, Friday evening. The body will lie in state at the church from 12:30 p.m. Saturday until the time of the services.

Delone Quint Hands Warriors 39-36 Defeat; Scrubs Win 8th

Gettysburg high school's basketball team dropped its third straight game here Tuesday evening when the hustling Delone Squires took a 39-36 decision.

Dick Harriel, Warrior forward, was severely shaken up in a fall after five minutes of the first quarter and was forced out of action the remainder of the game. He was taken to the Warner hospital where X-rays revealed no serious injury to his back. He returned to classes this morning and is expected to be ready to play at Shippensburg Friday night.

The Warriors put up another listless battle and were outscorped the whole way.

Coach Pomeroy's lads hopped off to an 8-5 lead in the first quarter via goals by Skinner and Fisel and a pair of free tosses by Harriel and Fisel. Delone's points came on goals by Brenner and Bevenour and a foul by Mumma.

A foul by Brenner and goal by Mumma knotted the score in the first three minutes of the second period. Jack Bream, an outstanding performer throughout, landed a side shot and drove in for another for Gettysburg but Wierman netted a lay-up and Mumma converted two charity tosses to tie it at 12-all midway in the round. Brenner hit on a long shot for the Squires and the visitors led the rest of the way. At half time it was 19-13.

Bream and Swope, the latter a capable substitute for Harriel, each landed a pair of goals near the end of the third frame to cut Delone's margin to 28-26 going into the final period.

Mumma and Fisel traded fouls to open the last quarter. Mumma followed with a short heave and Fisel looped a long shot. A side chuck by Mumma was followed by a free toss by Skinner. Smith rammed in a long toss and Punk netted a foul to make it 36-30 midway. Bream hit from near mid-court before Smith came up with a short toss and then added a foul. Delone took to freezing the ball in the fading moments. Bill Williams sank a shot from far out and just before the game ended John Carter scored from beneath to end the scoring.

Bream and Swope played outstanding ball for the Warriors while Mumma and Smith provided the spark for Delone.

The defeat marked the eighth in 12 starts for Gettysburg and was the seventh victory in the same number of tilts for the visitors.

Jayvees in Easy Win
Gettysburg's first stepping jayvee team copped its eighth verdict in 10 outings by outclassing the Delone scrubs 36-23 in a game featured by the accurate long set shots of Jay Schmitt.

On Friday the Warriors open the second half schedule of the South Penn league at Shippensburg.

Top division teams in the Adams County Basketball league kept up their winning ways by scoring victories Tuesday evening.

Unbeaten East Berlin ran wild to smother Littlestown 72-31 at East Berlin as Wayne Mummert ripped the cords for 24 points. The victory was the seventh straight in league competition for Coach Ellis Divine's squad and marked the seventh loop loss and 11th of the campaign for the Thunderbolts. The Littlestown reserves salvaged part of the program by taking the preliminary game 30-23.

Boiling Springs kept right at the heels of the league leaders with a smashing 53-30 triumph over "Pete" Kemper's York Springs tribe at York Springs. The Bubblers, led by Dromgold, led the entire way by a comfortable margin. York Springs' junior varsity copped the preliminary 34-28.

After being held to an 8-8 deadlock in the opening period, New Oxford finished in fine form to win at Newville 48-35. Fridinger led Marty Piegalski's winners with 18 points. The New Oxford scrubs made it a clean sweep with a 29-20 verdict in the opening contest.

Henry Favored Over Bob Satterfield
Chicago, Jan. 30 (AP)—Cloutin Clarence Henry, who has been likened to a young Joe Louis, and heavy-fisted Bob Satterfield will aim knockout punches tonight in a nationally televised 10 rounder at Chicago stadium.
Henry, 23 of Los Angeles, has been installed a better than 3 to 1 favorite. He is the third-ranking heavyweight contender and is undefeated in his last 12 fights.
Satterfield, a 28-year-old Chicagoan who has had an up-and-down career, was knocked out by Rex Layne and lost a decision to Wes Bascom in his last two fights.
Satterfield, a vicious puncher, always seems to rebound back into the fight picture when least expected. If he doesn't get knocked out, he might score a startling upset of Henry.

Canners Host To Delone Tonight

Tonight the Biglerville high cagers will attempt to snap the three-game winning streak of Delone Catholic when the teams clash at Biglerville. The Cannners have been finding the going rough this season and have won two while losing nine. Delone, fresh from its victory over Gettysburg Tuesday evening, has won its last three in a row for a 7-5 record for the campaign.

The junior varsity teams will meet in the preliminary game.

KONSTANTY TO TRY COMEBACK

Worcester, N. Y., Jan. 30 (AP)—"If I was hitting against myself last summer, I'd have hit 400."

Jim Konstanty, the Phillies relief pitcher, talked candidly about his form flipflop of 1951. Outside the kitchen window of his home in this quiet upstate village, the thermometer flirted with zero in mid-day.

This was—and still is—a quiet winter for Big Jim. None of the mad rush to speaking dates and television appearances that kept him busy last year. Then he was the toast of Philadelphia as the greatest reliever ever. He had been voted most valuable player in the National league. Every mail brought a new offer.

After his 4-11 season in '51, Jim swore off the banquet circuit. He even cut his schedule of dates as a basketball referee. His sporting goods store in Oneonta—some 30 miles away—took up most of his spare time.

"I've been thinking over last season a lot," he said. "You know I have many theories about pitching. I just want to try to get back where I was. I think I 'experimented' myself out of it. Now I want to experiment myself back into it."

Konstanty used to do his preliminary spring training by throwing to an undertaker friend in the high school gym. Well, he still does. The undertaker, Andy Skinner, stuffs the big mitt on his hand and Wentz 2 1 5 Big Jim throws, trying to find that old groove.

St. Francis Tops St. Rose Quintet

The young textile tycoon made a fine impression in his first joust with the metropolitan press. When he could, he gave easy straight-forward answers to the questions tossed at him, including the inevitable one concerning the three negro players on the Texans' roster. He said he felt they would get along fine.

When Giles—as he insisted upon being called—didn't know the answer, he said something to the effect that that was a long ways down the road yet.

One came away from soiree feeling that the professional footballers have, through no effort on their part, added a great deal of strength and financial stamina to their circuit and that the money game might be on the verge of a surprising growth.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

New York, Jan. 30 (AP)—One of the big reasons why professional football will be a rousing success at Dallas we learn, is that 25 or 30 miles is a good, solid day's journey either by ex team or on horseback.

We are indebted for this interesting piece of information to Giles Miller, the dark, rather chubby young man of 31 who negotiated the purchase of the New York Yanks and will preside as president of the new Dallas Texans as soon as he learns a few more things about the business.

Giles was explaining how he figures that Dallas, whose official population is listed at only 433,000, actually has 1,500,000 potential customers right around close—that is, within easy driving distance.

100-Mile Radius
"Back in the old days," he said, "a man who had done 25 miles or better was ready to put up for the night. So ever so often there was one of these trading posts, and now they've all become towns. You go out from Dallas in any direction and you'll hit one."

"Take if you're driving over to Fort Worth, which is quite a big trading post now. It's 35 miles, but all the way you'll never be outside the city limits of some town like Grand Prairie and Arlington. All around a circle outside Dallas it's the same. We figure we'll draw fans from 100-200 miles around. People down there think nothing of driving that far to see a good football game."

Impressed The Press
The young textile tycoon made a fine impression in his first joust with the metropolitan press. When he could, he gave easy straight-forward answers to the questions tossed at him, including the inevitable one concerning the three negro players on the Texans' roster. He said he felt they would get along fine.

B-29 Commander Is Hero In Emergency

Tokyo, Jan. 30 (AP)—You are in command of a B-29. You have 12 crewmen and 10 tons of bombs. You are over populous Tokyo when a fire breaks out. What would you do?

What Col. Delmore P. Wood of Lodi, Calif., did yesterday in that crisis made him a hero in the eyes of his crewmen. He got them all out safely. He saw to it that the bombs fell harmlessly — and that the plane wouldn't crash in a populated place.

Doing all that, Wood stayed with the flaming bomber until an engine had exploded, a wing had crumpled and the big plane rolled on its side. Shortly after he bailed out, the crumbling wreckage exploded with a roar that caused thousands in Tokyo to think there was an earthquake.

One of the crew members who, like his comrades, parachuted to safety was a Pennsylvania—Sgt. Bruce H. Dilbert, central fire control runner, of Douglassville in Berks county.

The proposed bout between Walcott and Matthews would be held in Los Angeles, Detroit or Las Vegas, Nev. The actor's agent was identified as Harry Hunt of Los Angeles. Matthews is rated as one of the top light-heavyweight contenders.

Bocchichio told reporters the offer was made by an actress and would carry additional fees for television rights. He did not identify the actress.

The California gray whale, now re-appearing in growing numbers along the Pacific Coast, has been considered extinct three different times in history.

weeks ago.

Mr. Gardner said he would sell the stock of the store within the next week or ten days.

2 Town Girls In Sophomore Play:
Two local girls have prominent parts in the cast of "We've Got to Have Money," the sophomore play,
which will be presented by the second year students Friday and Saturday evenings, February 4 and 5, in drama chapel.

Miss Jeanette Horner, who will play opposite Leonard Bryant, is a graduate of Gettysburg high school,
class of '25, and Miss Louise Ramer,
of the same class, portrays the part of Pinney, the old maid bookkeeper.

Accepts Position: Charles K. Miller, Fairfield road, has accepted a position with The Cork Manufacturing company and is located in Lancaster. Mrs. Miller and son will move to that city in the spring.

Purchases Farm: Leo Redding, Gettysburg R. 6, has purchased the U. H. Cromer farm, known as the Codioli place, west of here. Mr. Redding is employed at the Gettysburg garage.

Local Women Named Officers:
Two Gettysburg women, members of the auxiliary of the Albert J. Lentz American Legion post were elected to office in the Tri-county Council of the Legion Auxiliary at a meeting in Waynesboro Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Leroy Winebrenner, president of the local auxiliary, was named a trustee and Mrs. Lawrence E. Oyer was chosen secretary of the Tri-county organization.

Other members of the local auxiliary present were Mrs. C. M. Wolf
and Mrs. Dorsey Rebert.

Real Estate Transfers: Arthur
Redding, of Philadelphia, has purchased the 52-acre farm, stock and machinery of the late A. V. Redding, near Gettysburg. The consideration was $8,000. Mr. Redding will move to the place April 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Spangler,
York street.

Butt Properties Are Awarded to
Mrs. Ida Martin: Mrs. Ida Baugher
Martin, Carlisle street, will retain possession of the home of J. L. Butt
and the Butt apartment next door,
on Carlisle street, purchased by her early in 1924, through an opinion
handed down by Judge Albert W.
Johnson, of the federal court for the middle district of Pennsylvania.

The two properties, having an approximate value of $20,000, have been in litigation since Mr. Butt was adjudged a bankrupt in the spring of 1924.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
BEGINNINGS

I never go into one of the great
E. M. Statler hotels without thinking of the beginning of this man's remarkable success. It all started with an idea. Whenever I am in Buffalo and pass the Elliott Square
office building I think of Statler,
who was unknown when this largest
of Buffalo's buildings, at the time,
was built.

Here it was that Statler started a small restaurant, and it was so successful that when the St. Louis Pan American Exposition was created he thought it would be a good idea to have a hotel and eating place inside
the grounds, so that people would not have to go outside before their visit ended. He called his place "The Inside Inn." It was such a success that he went back to Buffalo and built his first outside hotel. He had small rooms, but clean and modern.
The famous line was "A room and a bath for a dollar and a half." This hotel was later sold and a magnificent new hotel was built in his home town. Now Statler hotels are in a great group of cities, each one emphasizing the early ideas of its founder.

One of Statler's ideas was that
"the customer is always right." Of course they are not always right,
but he wanted all his helpers to impress the idea upon his guests and always "to lean backwards" when a dispute arose. The unique success of these hotels is the answer. Another idea he initiated was to have the doors of each room sawed off at the bottom so as to allow a newspaper
to be delivered noiselessly for the guest, and in some of the hotels he had the home town newspaper of the guest delivered.

Mr. E. M. Statler was a man of ideas. I met him many years ago, played golf with him and was entertained on his yacht in Florida.
He was a most interesting man. He teamed with ideas and was a great advertising man. He inspired all his workers with the desire to please.
He wanted his guests to feel at home, and so he kept introducing features borrowed from the home. A multitude of his guests spend a great proportion of their lives away from their own home.

The Statler story is one that should inspire, and undoubtedly
has, many a one to climb upward
from a small beginning. Ideas are what have made this western world
the envy of the earth. That, free enterprise, and opportunities
abundantly, backed by courage.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Pleasant Dreams."

Just Folks

MEETING OF STRANGERS
Said a friend as we walked down
the street:

"Here's a fellow I want you to meet."
And since at that moment two strangers were we,
He told him my name and told
his name to me.
Just a brief introduction—a hail
and farewell,
But what is to follow nobody can tell.

So much that's important on trifles depends.
The strangers we meet may in time become friends.
Had somebody asked us a moment ago
Did each know the other, we should have said: "No."
But questioned tomorrow the answer is set.
We both still remember and tell
we have met.

We say: "Glad to meet you" and
offer a hand.
To talk to each other a moment
we stand.
But a change has come into our lives, unforeseen,
And none can foretell what our meeting will mean.

Just a brief introduction a friend
has arranged,
And the current of life for us all
has been changed.

ROTARY HEARS EX-GOVERNOR

William Swaim, Mt. Holly Springs, past district governor, was the guest speaker at the weekly meeting of the Littlestown Rotary club Tuesday evening at Schottie's hotel. The meeting was in charge of the Rotary Information committee, Ernest W.
Dunbar, chairman, who introduced the speaker. Mr. Swaim spoke on the subject, "The YOU Approach."
He pointed out the value and effectiveness in writing, conversation
and salesmanship of using more second person pronouns such as
"you," and fewer first person pronouns such as "I." He illustrated
his talk with letters from his own correspondence file and with famous
letters of history, such as Abraham Lincoln's letter to Mrs. Bixby, as well as with passages from the New Testament in which Jesus was presented as a foremost exponent of
"The YOU Approach." Mr. Swaim
stated that this approach is the heart of the spirit of Rotary service.

Charles Haven, of the Westminster club, was a visitor on Tuesday evening. Next week's meeting will be on Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock when the Rotary club will join with the local Lions club in entertaining the Boy Scout troops of the community. The Rotary committee assisting with the program,
will consist of Naveah A. Crouse,
chairman, Stanley B. Stover, Walter
F. Crouse, George P. Smith, Dr.
Donald B. Coover and Lloyd E.
Crouse. Dinner will be served to the Rotarians, Lions and Scouts in the social hall of Redeemer's Reformed church.

The Rev. and Mrs. William C.
Karns and their daughters, Anne,
13, and Melinda, seven, moved into
St. John's Lutheran church parsonage,
West King street, on Tuesday.
The Rev. Mr. Karns, former pastor
of Holy Trinity Lutheran church, Willow Grove, recently accepted a call as pastor of St. John's church.
He succeeds the Rev. Kenneth D.
James, who answered a call to the Glen Rock charge in November.

The executive board of the Women's Guild of St. Mary's Reformed church, Silver Run, will hold a business meeting on Friday evening, 7:30 o'clock, in the social hall of the church.

700 At Family Night

Thursday, confessions will be heard in St. Aloysius church from 4 to 5 and 7 to 7:30 p.m. in preparation for the first Friday of the month. Friday, the first Friday, Holy Communion will be distributed
outside of mass at 5:45 and 7 a.m.,
with mass at 7:30 a.m. Saturday,
devotions in honor of Our Lady of Fatima will be held with mass in the church at 8 a.m. and evening
devotions at 7 p.m.

Seven hundred were in attendance at the seventh annual family
night party sponsored by Melvin J.
Sheffer, Inc., on Monday evening in the Littlestown high school auditorium. Musical entertainment was provided by the 101 Ranch Boys of York. A comedy and juggling act entertainment included two reels
of film, one on International Harvester equipment and the other about the Three Stooges. John Sheffer, secretary-treasurer of the incorporation, gave an address of welcome.

Seven hundred were in attending 12 toys and a group of merchandise certificates. The prizes were presented by John Sheffer.
Merchandise certificates were received by the following: $50, Wade
Brown; $25, Roy Leese; $15, Edward Harner; $10, Howard Snyder and $5,
George Koons.

The Ever Willing Sunday school
class of St. John's Lutheran church, will sponsor a gadget party on Friday evening, February 15, 7:30 o'clock, at the church, instead of February 8, as previously announced.
The public is invited.

Promotion ceremonies will be held in conjunction with the regular meeting of the local Cub Scouts,
at a Cub Pack meeting on Thursday evening, 7 o'clock, in the basement of the Littlestown State bank building. The ceremonies will be in

Supreme Court Dismisses Appeal

Washington Jan. 30 (AP) — The Supreme court has dismissed an appeal from a lower court's refusal to order a reapportionment of legislative districts of Pennsylvania.

The lower tribunal was a special three-judge U. S. District court sitting in Philadelphia. It said the remedy of protesting voters "lies,
at least primarily, in the General Assembly" and in the state's courts.

This decision was appealed to the Supreme court by three Philadelphia voters: Robert H. Remmey,
Jr., Clarence E. Bertollet and Frank Bruckner.

They said the Pennsylvania Legislature's last reapportionment action occurred in 1921. Since then, they contended, population shifts have caused state senatorial and representative districts to become "grossly disproportionate."

New Oxford

New Oxford—Miss Nellie Melhorn,
R. 2, has been a patient at the Hanover hospital where she was removed by ambulance last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurin E. Sheely,
who were married early this month
and have returned from their New York wedding trip, were honored
upon their return at a dinner served at the Hampton home of her mother, Mrs. Dorothy Bucher.

Miss Sarah Mummert, near Pine
Run, has been quite ill at her home
where her brother, George, who was hospitalized for some time in the fall, has also been seriously ill. Another sister, Miss Nettie Mummert,
who has been bedfast for the past year, recently entered a convalescent home in Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Staub and daughters, Joan and Barbara Ann, Hallam, were recently entertained
by local relatives.

Mrs. Charles W. Bothwell, Jr., and son, Bobby, Phoenixville, were recent house guests of her parents,
Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Hemminger.
Following a regular meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the Pines
Lutheran church, New Chester,
Monday evening at the Sunday school rooms of their church, a
"gadget party" was conducted by the women.

Will Investigate Justice Department

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP) — The House Judiciary committee Tuesday
ordered an investigation of the Administration of the Justice Department and the office of Attorney General J. Howard McGrath.

The investigation will be made by
seven members of the committee,
four Democrats and three Republicans, to be designated by Chairman Celler (D-NY).

It was ordered at a closed session
of the committee and by a vote
members would not disclose. Republicans had urged that the inquiry
be ordered, as a follow-up to disclosures of government tax scandals.

President Truman has designated McGrath himself to direct a cleanup drive against corruption in government.

London, Jan. 30 (AP)—The Conservative government has declared Britain must slash her imports by another 150 million pounds (420
million dollars) a year to help head off national bankruptcy.

The cut, which comes on top of another of 350 million pounds ordered two months ago, was announced in the House of Commons
by Chancellor of the Exchequer
R. A. Butler. The government called on the British people for a supreme effort to step up production and export earnings.

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—Lincoln
MacVeagh, now ambassador to Portugal, has been nominated an ambassador to Spain. MacVeagh succeeds Stanton Griffiths, who resent MacVeagh's nomination to the Senate for confirmation. Griffiths was the first ambassador to Spain after the United States resumed full-scale

diplomatic relations with the Franco government.

Building Ideas For Home Owners

Of all the architectural styles in dwellings, none gives the architect
a better opportunity to keep down
costs than the Garrison Colonial.
Furthermore this type of house
looks well in almost any setting,
and for that reason the style has retained its popularity through the years.

An excellent example of the Garrison Colonial is "The Pascoag," which is introduced today by the Home of the Week Plan Service.
The first-floor measurements are 26 x 26 feet. The porch gives its second story an extra foot in depth
—space which is of great value in the layout of the upstairs bedrooms
and closets.

Suited To 50 Frontage
The house can be built on a lot with a 50-foot frontage and still leave sufficient space for a breezeway and garage.

The architect suggests that the garage could have a second story
den, in which case the upstairs hall
window shown in the floor plan
would be changed to a door opening into the room over the garage.
The total cubage of the house
sketched is 19,500 feet—a surprisingly small figure for a 7-room house.

In outward appearance, The Pascoag is most pleasing. The overhang and the bay window on the front
give it distinction. Further example shows the exterior walls combine bricks with painted shingles. A cut stone facing on the first floor front
and clapboarded walls elsewhere,
would look equally well. Color scheme possibilities are unlimited
for painting such a house, but white painted walls and green roof and trim are probably the most popular combination.

The pilastered Colonial doorway
opens on a hall which has stairs at the right, an archway to the living room at the left and, at the far end of the hall, a door to the kitchen.

The stairs, ending at a landing lighted by a window on the side of the house, may be left open or closed off by a partition. A coat closet is located at the stair landing.

Fireplace A Feature
The living room measures 18 x 13
feet and has as its principal feature
the bay window and, opposite this centered in the long inside wall of the room, a large fireplace with built-in bookshelves at the right. At the left of the fireplace, a door
opens on the dining room.

The dining room, 11 x 11 feet in dimensions, has a built-in china cabinet. A corner cabinet might also be added in the corner backing the chimney. A French or Dutch door
in the rear wall of the room opens on a porch, which most owners will

wish to screen in and glaze for year-round use. A flagstone terrace at the left or right of the porch would be a desirable feature.

A swinging door from the dining room opens on a small hall corridor,
passing a storage closet and lavette
as it leads to the kitchen. This latter is an efficiently planned "housewife's work shop" measuring 12 x 11
feet and containing a spacious working counter with sink and storage
cabinets above and below, an additional built-in cabinet backs the service entry wall. A snack bar could be built in between working counter and the cabinet, below a window on this side of the room.

The service entry could have a small coat closet built facing the door to the cellar stairs, handy to receive raincoats and rubbers in stormy weather.

Full Cellar Well-Planned
The full cellar is planned to accommodate the heating plant below
the dining room and laundry equipment under the kitchen. This would leave the entire area across the front half of the house for use as a recreation room or hobby shop.

The second story plan affords a wealth of bedroom and closet space,
an L-shaped hall at the head of the stairs connecting all rooms.

Each bedroom, and the bathroom,
has its own closet, and a large linen closet is located in the hall. Largest of the bedrooms is 13 x 12½ feet.
The others measure 12½ x 8, 11 x
10 and 9 x 8 respectively. Each bedroom has windows on two sides.

Full insulation is recommended in a house of this type, and small windows should be provided in the gable ends for ventilation of the attic area.

Complete plans and specifications
for this "Home of the Week" or any other design of this series are available at moderate cost. To as-ertain the exact price of these documents, write to the Home
Building Editor, The Gettysburg
Times, and enclose a self-addressed envelope bearing a 3-cent stamp. At least one week should be allowed for a reply.

Because of the shortage of metals,
many builders have resorted to the use of old-fashioned wooden gutters on new homes. If kept well painted with first-quality house
paint on the outside and with liquid roof coating on the inside, and cleaned out occasionally, these gutters will give years of satisfactory service.

Before giving the kitchen walls
their spring coat of paint, be sure that every crack and crevice is filled smoothly with plaster. There is mending plaster on the market now for these small jobs. It is not unlike plaster to harden, and is therefore more easily applied by the amateur.

Down spouts may be made of cop-

are used most frequently in the United States. Both these materials should be corrugated (having a

with consequent expansion of the metal without injury. Square down spouts are preferable to round ones.

SCHOOL HEADS TO ADMINISTER LOYALTY OATH

Harrisburg, Jan. 30 (AP)—Pennsylvania's public school officials were advised Tuesday it is their responsibility to administer the state's new loyalty oath law.

Dr. Francis B. Haas, state superintendent of public instruction, issued the advice in a letter mailed out to all school heads.

The new loyalty oath statute requires all public employees in the state, except elected officials, to take an anti-Communist oath or be fired from their jobs. The period for taking such oaths is from March 1 to April 1.

60,000 Must Take Oath

Haas pointed out in the letter that the new statute specifically delegates to local school heads the task of supervising the administration of the loyalty oath to the state's 60,000 public school teachers.

Haas noted that in cases where teachers are cited under the loyalty act as being subversive, he is required to act as "judge" or "referee" in hearing the appeals.

Any school teacher accused in writing of being subversive may within 30 days after notified of such charges make an appeal. The appeal is directed to the superintendent of public instruction. If the accused person is dissatisfied with the superintendent's ruling, he may appeal further to the local county court.

U.N. COMMITTEE CONDEMNS REDS

Paris, Jan. 30 (AP)—With almost half the member nations declining to vote, the United Nations Political Committee Tuesday condemned the Soviet Union as having failed to honor its 1945 treaty or friendship with the Chinese government of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

The vote, 24 to 9, with 25 abstentions, came shortly after Soviet Delegate Jacob A. Malik charged that under the direction of two American generals there is being built up in Burma a Chinese Nationalist "shock force, armed to the teeth which at any moment can provoke aggression." The U.S. repeatedly denied similar charges raised by the Chinese Reds. Before Malik spoke the U.S. again had rejected such charges and implied it would not aid the Chinese Nationalists in Burma.

The resolution was a watered-down version of one presented by T. P. Tsiang of Nationalist China and supported by the U.S. to condemn the U.S.S.R. for violating the treaty.

The "yes" votes came from the Latin American countries, the U.S., Nationalist China, Iraq, Liberia, Thailand and Turkey. British Commonwealth nations, France, Mexico, Belgium, Holland and the Scandinavian countries abstained.

India, Indonesia, Burma and Israel voted with the Soviet bloc against the resolution.

To Call 1,762 Men For Draft In March

Harrisburg, Jan. 30 (AP)—State draft headquarters Tuesday fixed Pennsylvania's March induction quota at 1,762 men and advised local draft boards all inductees chosen must be 20 years or older. The national draft call for March is 28,600.

Col. Henry M. Gross, state draft director, said he has been directed by National Selective Service headquarters to make every effort to fill the March quota with registrants who are 21 at the time of induction, regardless of board quotas.

Gross said this will be done by arranging local board quotas in proportion to the number of registrants they have who are 21.

The state draft head said also the national orders also directed if state quotas cannot be met with 21 year olds entirely younger men may be called but they may not use registrants under 20.

BITTER COLD CHECKS OHIO RIVER FLOOD

Marietta, O., Jan. 30 (AP)—Bitter winter weather Tuesday eased the ponderous sweep of a three-state Ohio river flood—but 7,000 still were homeless and nine were dead.

Sub-freezing temperatures caused raging Ohio river tributaries to crest 12 hours ahead of time and two to three feet below the expected top.

This reduced the flood threat to down-river communities. The U. S. Weather Bureau at Cincinnati said it was cutting down the depths it expected the Ohio to reach at cities westward toward the Mississippi river.

Marietta members of the 166th Infantry, Company F, Ohio National Guard, patrolled flooded downtown and residential streets to prevent looting. The Guardsmen used rowboats. The only places in this river city where heating gas was shut off were evacuated buildings and the 100-block of Green street.

The river stood at 43.6 feet early on Tuesday and rose less than one-tenth of a foot an hour. Flood stage is 35 feet.

Cold Adds To Suffering

Snow flurries swirled over flood-plagued Ohio during the night and earlier Tuesday. The mercury stood well below freezing. This caused the Scioto river to crest at Chillicothe 12 hours ahead of schedule at 26.75 feet. Rivermen had predicted 23 feet. The Hocking river crested Monday night at Athens at 13.3 feet, about eight inches under the anticipated crest, and then began falling.

Scores of Ohio roads were inundated, however.

The cold weather added to general misery in the flood area. Many persons who had planned to stay in upper floors of their homes were forced to evacuate for lack of heat. Water froze in gas pipes and basements. The cold snap covers dreads with ice, but transportation already had been brought to a near-standstill by the flood.

London, Jan. 30 (AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill announced Monday he has chosen Field Marshal Viscount Alexander to take the job of defense minister off his aging shoulders.

Alexander, 69, has been governor-general of Canada since 1945. Viscount Massey has been appointed his successor in that job and Alexander will return to Britain in February, assuming the defense ministry on March 1.

FIREMEN HACK ICE-CAKED RUINS TO FIND BODIES

Minneapolis, Jan. 30 (AP)—Using axes to break apart the ice-caked debris, firemen Tuesday recovered eleven bodies from the ruins of the three-story business-apartment house razed by fire at the edge of the Minneapolis loop on Monday.

Fire Chief Reynold Malmquist said his men expected to find the bodies of six others, missing and presumed dead, in the tangled wreckage of bricks and wood.

Braving 15-below-zero temperatures, firemen worked throughout the night in the glare of the blazing battery of floodlights. A wrecking crane with its swinging bucket worked seven hours toppling the fire-riddled walls before Malmquist would allow firemen to search the ruins.

Find Boy, Girl

The first bodies taken out were those of a boy about 6 and a girl, 3. The little girl, found on the steel springs of a crib, clutched a doll so large firemen first thought they had found two bodies.

The other pitiful remnants were those of a woman and boy about 12. None was identified immediately.

The American Red Cross, after repeated newspaper and radio appeals, listed as missing six adults, two teen-agers and nine young children. All were occupants of third floor quarters of the building at 60½ Glenwood avenue, two blocks northwest of the downtown business district.

BIG N. Y. BUDGET

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 30 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey sent the Legislature Tuesday a record-smashing state budget of $1,092,700,884 requiring tax increases despite a 94-million dollar jump in appropriations. In his budget message Dewey recommended continuance of the 10 per cent abatement in the state's personal income tax for another year and collection of the unincorporated business tax at three per cent instead of the basic four.

Two Countians In Hanover Crashes

A car driven by Robert Leppo, 427 Main street, McSherrystown, struck a parked automobile owned by Norman Rohrbaugh, East Berlin R. 2, in front of 413 Broadway, Hanover, at 6:18 p.m. Saturday. Leppo was driving west on Broadway and as he crossed the railroad tracks his car swerved to the left. Leppo was charged before Justice on the Peace George A. Lippy, Hanover, with reckless driving. Damage to Leppo's car was estimated at $60; to Rohrbaugh's at $20.

F. B. Cornell, 370 East King street, Littlestown, reported that at 9 p.m. his car, halted for a traffic light at Broadway and York street, Hanover, was struck by another automobile which did not stop. Cornell reported the license number of the offending vehicle. He estimated his damage at $50.

FAVOR LONGER WORKING WEEK

Members of the Adams County Farmers' association are on record as advocating a longer national work week "in order that the United States might better be able to meet its defense and civilian production requirements."

Members of the county association were represented at the recent meeting of the Pennsylvania Farmers' association where the policy of a longer work week was adopted. The county representative on the state association's resolutions committee was Martin T. Walter, Biglerville.

Members of the association in their resolutions call attention to the fact that "no farmer could make a decent and respectable living if he attempted to limit his working hours to 40 hours per week."

"Neither do we believe that a person working in a factory or business house can expect to earn a decent standard of living in 40 hours per week. Especially at this time, when this nation needs to expand its production for protective purposes and for the control of inflation, we believe that the work week should be lengthened, by legislation if necessary, in order that all segments of the economy can be brought into full production."

"We believe it is possible, if business and industry are continually forced to pay higher wages for less work, that many of them will be forced out of business, with the result that our government would be forced to take over. If this should happen, we would find ourselves no longer operating under a free enterprise system, which we as farmers hold vital to the welfare of our country."

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—A House Ways and Means subcommittee has started contempt proceedings against Henry W. Grunewald and his attorney, William Power Maloney. The action came after Maloney was forcibly removed from a committee hearing and Grunewald, sometimes called "The Dutchman," then refused to answer a single question put by the House tax scandal investigators.

Maloney was ousted for shouting repeated objections to the subcommittee's efforts to make Grunewald give answers.

ALL THIS FOR ONE NICKEL

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 30 (AP)—Husky James M. Mooney shoved a nickel at toll-taker Ael Ramey on the Ohio river bridge and demanded: "now are you satisfied?"

The payoff completed a wet, 20-mile, 20-hour circle for the 33-year-old North Kenova, O., steelworker. It began Monday night when Mooney, admitting he had "had a few," refused to pay his pedestrian toll because he didn't like the way Ramey asked for it.

He jumped into the flood-swollen river when police, called by Ramey, chased him to the middle of the bridge. The river was too rough for the fire rescue squad to put out a boat and it was assumed Mooney had drowned.

Late yesterday, Mooney explained to Detective Chief Herman Frazier that he came to the surface five blocks downstream and began swimming. The steamboat George T. Price, on its way to Cincinnati, was passing and Mooney grabbed hold.

Mooney was released without charge after promising Frazier, "next time I will sure pay that guy a nickel regardless of how he asks for it."

Littlestown

Littlestown — The Ladies Auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226, will sponsor a public party on Saturday evening beginning at 8 o'clock at the Eagles home, West King street.

The various committees on arrangements for the affair are as follows: Refreshments, Mrs. Claire Jacoby, Mrs. Thelma Eyer, Mrs. Margaret Koontz and Mrs. Dora Breighner; prizes, Mrs. Mildred Sentz, Mrs. Florence Study and Mrs. Mary Hildah Fortney, and publicity, Mrs. Mabel Rittase.

Plans were furthered for the annual Blue and Gold birthday dinner for the Littlestown Cub Scouts at a special meeting of the Cub committee members, den mothers and den fathers on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Richard Knipple, Lumber street. The dinner will be held Thursday, February 14, 8:30 o'clock in the social hall of St. Paul's Lutheran church. It was also decided that the Cubs should bring articles for the scout window display for Boy Scout week, along to the regular meeting this Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the basement of the State bank building. The display will be arranged on Tuesday, February 5, in Banker's restaurant window, by the den fathers. At the meeting on Thursday evening, promotion exercises will be held in charge of the Assistant Cubmaster Howard Myers. Those in attendance at the Thursday meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Knipple, Mr. and Mrs. Beavon Hansen, Mrs. E. Paul Bigelow, Mrs. Wilson Stair, Mrs. John J. Way and Mrs. Edwin W. Elder, Jr.

The January meeting of the Ladies Aid society of St. John's Lutheran church will be held on Thursday evening at 7:30 in the social hall of the church. Mrs. Malcolm I. Heiser will serve as chairman of the hostess committee.

Mrs. John Kindig, East King street, will be hostess to the Starr Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church for the monthly meeting on Thursday evening at 7:45 o'clock. The January committee consists of Mrs. Ralph Conover, chairman, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Mrs. Emma Norman and Mrs. Kindig.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Sell, East King street, have received word that their son, Herbert J. Sell, who is stationed at Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., as instructor and pianist at the Army and Air Forces Special Services school, has recently been promoted to the rank of sergeant.

Letter to the Editor

211 N. Washington Street
Gettysburg, Pennsylvania
January 24, 1952

Dear Sir:

In your "Here and There" column of yesterday (January 23rd) you unwittingly gave further circulation to a spurious "Ten Cannots" attributed to Abraham Lincoln. I think for the sake of the record that the true origin of this "decalogue" ought to be explained.

In the first place, nowhere in Lincoln's published writings may such statements be found. He had no occasion during his public career to express such views.

In the second place, the real author was a Reverend William J. H. Boetcker, an Erie, Pennsylvania minister who was interested in improving industrial relations. Rev. Boetcker penned these sentiments in part in 1916, added some in 1917, and completed the ten statements in 1938.

Some few years ago the Committee for Constitutional Government distributed hundreds of thousands of leaflets captioned "Lincoln on Limitations." One side carried an authentic Lincoln statement, while on the reverse were Boetcker's ten points with a footnote crediting them to the "Inspiration of Wm. J. H. Boetcker." Some erroneously attributed Boetcker's views to Lincoln and thus began the circulation of this error.

A recent article in "Harper's Magazine" (May, 1950) relates how this and other views on politics, economics, and social questions have been falsely credited to Lincoln. In the interest of accuracy, I wish you would advertise this fact in your column.

As to the soundness of the views expressed in the "Ten Cannots," I don't pretend to judge. But the important thing is that Lincoln never said them.

Yours truly,
Robert L. Bloom

Fairfield

Fairfield — Mrs. Naomi Lady, Grantham, is visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hess.

Mrs. George Neely, Sr., is the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Neely, Jr., York.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kittinger included Miss Carrie Kittinger, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kittinger and family, all of Lancaster, and Master Sgt. Clair Kittinger, of the army.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Martin and family visited Sunday with relatives in Ephrata.

Mrs. John O'Brien entertained the bridge club at her home in Gettysburg Monday evening. Prizes for high scores were won by Mrs. Clarence Wilson and Mrs. J. Warren Martin. The club will meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Robert Willis.

The NCCW of St. Mary's church will hold a card party Tuesday evening, February 5, in the Fairfield community fire hall.

Cites Progress In Defense Of Europe

Paris, Jan. 30 (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower's chief of staff says the West has made far more progress in strengthening its defenses of Europe than anyone expected a year ago.

Eisenhower's aide, Gen. Alfred Gruenther, answered questions from United Nations correspondents on a television-radio program.

He warned, however, that though "the progress which has been made is very marked, it has not reached the stage where it can guarantee against an act of aggression."

The Turkish island of Bozca Ada was the one to which the Greeks withdrew while the Trojans breached the walls of Troy to admit their wooden horse.

D. A. Stuffs Fur Coat Under Girdle; Wins

New York, Jan. 30 (AP)—Can a Persian lamb coat be hidden inside a woman's girdle?

"It is physically impossible to do such a thing," said Defense Attorney Carson D. Baker yesterday at the trial of two women accused of shoplifting such a coat by concealing it under the girdle one of them wore.

But Assistant District Attorney James P. McGratton picked up a girdle entered in evidence. He wiggled his 180-pound frame and finally twisted the girdle over his hips. He picked up the coat in question and stuffed it inside.

Then, as he strutted back and forth before the jury, the prosecutor asked: "I leave it to you to decide whether it could or could not be done."

Sixty minutes later the jury found Margaret Walker, 30, and Mrs. Leary Wright, 47, both guilty.

Immigrant Couple Will Visit State

New York, Jan. 30 (AP)—Bruno Ewald Paul, 46, and his wife, Margit, 33, natives of Hamburg, Germany, who crossed the Atlantic in a 30-foot sailboat, are planning a visit with relatives in Pennsylvania this week.

The couple are awaiting action on a special bill before Congress that would allow them to stay in this country. They have been held since September when they reached port at Miami, Fla. They were released from Ellis Island Friday under $500 bond.

The expect to visit Paul's uncles, Wils Nielsen, Erie, Pa., and Ewald and Element Nielsen, of Corry, Pa.

Washington, Jan. 30 (AP)—The United States has given some hitherto secret atomic information to Canada and has received some in return under an arrangement declared "beneficial" to the United States.

Chairman Gordon Dean of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, announcing this late yesterday, did not disclose the nature of the information given by either country. He said only that "it's classified (secret)" and "within an area" of atomic development.

She Looks Forward To Spring Plowing At 103

Whitesburg, Ky., Jan. 30 (AP)—In the spring, 103-year-old "Aunt Jane" Adams' thoughts turn to plowing.

And as spring and her 104th birthday approached, those were her thoughts today—"following the old plow and the family mule around the hillsides just like I used to do in the long ago."

"Aunt Jane" comes from a long-living family. Her 86-year-old brother, "Uncle Eli" Lucas, recently became the father of his 18th child. Her father, Aaron Lucas, died at the age of 103. Her grandfather lived to be 105.

Selfishness destroys character and it will destroy a nation.

Ousted Collector Of Revenue Jailed 2 Years, Fined $10,500

Boston, Jan. 30 (AP)—Denis W. Delaney, ousted collector of Internal Revenue for Massachusetts, was sentenced Tuesday to two years' imprisonment and fined $10,500 on convictions of receiving $7,500 in bribes and falsifying that $180,000 in tax liens had been satisfied.

Federal Judge Charles E. Wyzanski, Jr., sentenced Delaney to two years in prison on each of three counts in an indictment which charged he received $7,500 to influence tax decisions. The court ordered that the terms be served concurrently.

He also fined Delaney $2,500 on each count—the amounts he was accused of soliciting and receiving. The sentence also included disqualification of Delaney to "hold any position of honor and profit" in the United States government.

Judge Wyzanski said he had no alternative but to pronounce sentence on a second indictment under which Delaney was convicted in three counts of falsifying tax liens, although he said to Delaney: "In my view it is quite different and shows you received no advantage of any kind for signing these false certificates or that the government was damaged in any way."

He went on to fine Delaney the minimum of $1,000 on each of these three counts and to sentence him to six months on each count, the sentences to be served concurrently with the other sentences.

He then suspended the six months' sentences.

London, Jan. 30 (AP)—Russia protesting for the second time in two months against formation of a Middle East defense command, charged last night it is a Western attempt at "encirclement" of the Soviet Union and her Communist allies.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko summoned representatives of the United States, Britain, France and Turkey—the four nations sponsoring the Middle East proposal—to the foreign office in Moscow at half hour intervals and handed them identical notes.
